ported by a minority of the Finance Comin the Common Council last night, after The vote was as follows:

Ayes-Messrs. Allen, Anderson, Batkins, Bossieux, Clowes, Crenshaw, Cur-tis, Ellett, Fergusson, Garber, Glenn, Hesiep, Hobson, Miner, Morton, O'Nell, Pollock, Shea, Spicer, Stein, West, Whalen and Williams-23.

Whalen and Williams—23.

Noes—Messrs. Bottom, Grimes, Hargrove, Hicks, Huber, Peters, Pollard, Bpence, Wiltshire and Bloomberg—10.

The report of the committee which was in favor of the Crenshaw plan was rejected by a vote of 11 to 21, the substitute offered by Mr. Bloomberg having been previously rejected.

The battle was a pretty one, and was led in favor of the report of the committee by Messrs. Crenshaw and Bloomberg and by Messrs. Crenshaw and Bloomberg and by Messrs. Ellett, Pollock and Anderson for the minority report which was presented by Mr. Ellett.

It required twenty-four votes to adopt a plan, and that of Captain McCarthy having failed by only one vote, was reconting the second of the control of the cont plan, and that of Captain McCarthy having failed by only one vote, was reconsidered and laid on the table, and will come up at a called meeting to-night, when it will likely pass.

MEETING IN DETAIL.

The body was called to order at $ o'clock by President Bloomberg, and a quorum of members answered to their names. Réports from various committees relating to improvements, etc., were read, and adopted by the body, and a great deal of routine business of different kinds was disposed of.

An ordinance from the Street Committee

An ordinance from the Street Committee was tabled, requiring all corporations to conform to uniform conduit rules in the underground district, and it was ordered Crenshaw plan.

Mr. Bloomberg offered a substitute

Mr. Bloomberg offered a substitute which has been heretofore printed in full, and it was read by the clerk. The patron (Mr. Peters in the chair) made a strong speech for his substitute, and discussed the proposition at some length.

Mr. Pollock, who was soon to take up the fight for the McCarthy plan, interrogated the speaker often, and the latter was frequently interrupted with questions by Mr. Crenshaw as well.

several colloquys, and General Ander-on asked that he be not interrupted, as was making a strong argument for an-her plan, presumably that of Mr. Mo-arthy, as General Anderson was known preent system, and did not desire to see the city's improvements impeded.

Mr. Creasans spoke for his plan at some length, and look occasion to differ with Mr. Bloomberg on many points. The former's plan was the report of the Fi-nance Committee, and he spoke with much confidence in answering Mr. Bloom-substitute, and it was rejected— noes, 24—the only members voting affirmation being Messrs. Bloom-rimes, Hicks. Peters, Spence, Stein,

Mr. Crenshaw and Mr. Bloomberg having now come together, the latter took the floor again and spoke briefly for the report of the committee, as amended by himself and incidentally against the Mchimself and incidentally against the Mc-Curthy plan, though he paid a tribute to the city accountant.

Mr. Crenshaw was put under heavy fire by Messrs. Folioch and others, and he was kept busy for some time answer-ing questions.

The Crenshaw plan was rejected by the following vots:

Ayes-Messrs. Bottoin, Crenshaw, Crimes, Hargrove, Hicks, Huber, Peters, Pollard, Spence, Wiltshire and Bloom-borg-il.

Noes-Messrs. Allen, Anderson, Batkins, Bossleux, Clowes, Curtis, Ellett, Fergus-

INDIAN BAND

Sheriff and One Deputy Killed in Fight Out in Eastern Wyoming.

SECOND BATTLE REPORTED

In This Encounter it is Said Ten Indians Were Killed and Eleven Captured.

DENVER, COL., Nov. 2.—Five hundred men, including sheriff's posses, augmented by volunteers from the ranches adjacent, are searching the country in the vicinity of Lightning Creek, in Eastern Wyoming, for the band of Indians which Saturday ifternoon, fought a battle with Sheriff Miler's nosse, killing the sheriff and one ler's posse, killing the sheriff and one ler's posse, killing the sheriff and one deputy named Fossenburg. The latest advices are to the effect that a second battle has been fought and ten Indians killed and eleven others captured, but these have not yet been verified.

News from the scene of the trouble, which is twnty-five miles from telegraphic communication, is very meagre. The Indians, seventy-five in number, are said to be under the leadership of Charlie Carries

They have been hunting in Converse county, Wyoming, in violation of the game laws of the State. Sheriff Miller, with a posse, went to the scene of their depredations last Saturday to arrest them. The Indians had received tles ran to cover and then ensued a gen-uine Indian fight. The whites found re-fuge behind trees and boulders. It is thought that at least six Indians almost an hour, when the Indians began to make their escape by ones and twos, on horseback. They carried their dead and wounded with them and are now believed to be well on their way to the Bad Lands in Nebraska. The officers did not attempt to follow, but sent a courier to Lusk, the nearest telegraph office, with a message to Governor Chatterton, apprising him of what had occurred.

For the past two weeks the Indians have been in the northeastern Wyoming, slaughtering game in violation of the game laws. In addition the settlers have been complaining that they have been killing and stealing their cattle. The Indians claimed the government had so reduced the amount of their rations that they were forced to kill game to keep from starving. Charlie Carries Elk opening declared that if he and his followers ly declared that if he and his follow were driven too far they would fight.

Academy last night when Miss Amelie Hingham and her excellent supporting company appeared in Clyde Fitch's adaptation, "The Erisky Mrs. Johnson." Not only was the production perfect in its scenic equipment, but it was quite as artistic, which latter fact should probably be given precedence.

A production mounted as handsomely as was that of last night, is rather unusual, except in New York city, and in this respect the engagement may be considered exfraordinary. There are two settings used in the three acts and each setting is built of wood, handsomely decorated. Every piece of scenery used is

Regarding the recent transfer of the business of the Royal Tribe of Joseph to the Cosmopolitan Life of Springfield, Ill., Mr. J. E. Ritchie, Supreme Scribe of the Tribe, said last night:

"I can understand why some members should foel that they may have been negrected." said Mr. Ritchie, "by not having early notice of the combination and the reason therefor. We believe the combination to be for the best interests of all members, it was my duty to advise the members, but owing to the serious illness of my sister, I was unexpectedly called to Clifton Springs, N. Y. I prepared the letter on the train and mailed it, but for some reason it was delayed in transit several days. By this time all the members have received copies of the Royal Tribe Herald and are apprized of the situation."
